

Clemens
1952

(notes for Dr. Sackman)

1 - If Dr. Heald doesn't mention them in his opening remarks, please call attention to the relatives of Miss Anthony, all of the College and University Presidents and their representatives, jurists, as well as the physicians and other scientists in the audience.

- - - - -

2 - Mention the large turnout of the members of the different women's organizations, The National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, the World Woman's Party, and the National Woman's Party, as well as many others.

- - - - -

3 - Judge Allen took her law degree on the campus

- - - - -

4 - Dr. Craven was a professor at NYU a few years ago

- - - - -

5 - If the Chancellor doesn't mention them, please call attention to the Electors of the Hall of Fame - Dr. Arthur J. Brown; Dean Cronkhite of Radcliffe College; Dr. Herbert Putnam; Dr. McElroy, the historian, and Mr. Cyrus Eaton.

6 - In introducing Miss Putnam, the sculptor of the Anthony head, please say something about her prominence, and the fact that she came out of so-called retirement to model this head for us. She is actually one of the best living sculptors in America today. As well as being a sculptor, she is a fine musician and author. Her father, Herbert Putnam, is an elector of the Hall of Fame and former Librarian of Congress.

- - - - -

7 - Tell of Miss Hoffman's absence in Europe, and of her prominence. She, as you know, did the Paine head.

- - - - -

8 - Dr. Alice Paul, one of the wreath bearers for Miss Anthony, led the final fight for the 19th amendment which gave the women the vote. She had the distinction of being arrested for the cause.

- - - - -

9 - Dr. Mary E. Meade, the principal of the Washington Irving High School, designated the child who is presenting the wreath for the National Education Association. Dr. Meade is the official representative for the NEA and two other organizations listed on wreath page.

- - - - -